Founded by Eswatini Government

MISSION

NTC aspires to excel in all academic and community service endeavours to deliver on the mandate at hand.

VISION

A tertiary institution of choice in the provision of relevant and diverse quality education

OUR VALUES

Professionalism, Integrity, Accountability, Mutual Respect

OUR HISTORY

Since its establishment in 1982, Ngwane Teachers College has been and still is an inspiring community of highly skilled competent and resourceful teachers who contribute effectively and efficiently to the development of the nation and the SADC region. Ngwane Teachers College (NTC) is situated in the Shiselweni region. The college is about 3km south of Nhlangano town. The college was established in 1982 as a government institution under the ministry of Education. The construction of the college emanated from the findings of an education commission which was set up by the government in 1976. The recommendations of the commission included the construction of a teachers' college which would have diversified programmes that would include practical subjects such as Agriculture, Art and Crafts, Music, and Home Economics. The construction of the college was sponsored by the European Union (EU) and was officially opened on 30th September 1983 by Prince Bhekimpi Dlamini who was Prime Minister then
